3 Segment reporting

An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the Group's other components, whose operating results are reviewed regularly by the Executive Committee (EXCOM), to make decisions about resources allocated to each segment and assess its performance, and for which discrete financial information is available. All costs that are directly traceable to the operating segments are allocated to the segment concerned.

The Group has identified three reportable segments that are used by the Executive Committee (EXCOM) to make key operating decisions. All operating segment results are reviewed regularly by EXCOM to make decisions about resources to be allocated and to assess its performance. The reportable segments are largely grouped according to customer type for which discrete financial information is available. The customer segments are as follows:

- Consumer Business Unit (CBU)
- Enterprise Business Unit (EBU)
- Wholesale Business Unit (WBU)

Operating results are reported and reviewed regularly by the EXCOM and include items directly attributable to a segment.

Customer segments	Description
Consumer Business Unit (CBU)	It consists of subscribers sitting in value propositions and tariff plans dedicated to three sub segments: Youth, High Value and Mass segments. All MTN customers are assumed to fall within CBU except where otherwise stated.
Enterprise Business Unit (EBU)	Enterprise customers are mostly corporate and small medium organisations whose business requires our products, services and solutions to serve their everyday business needs.
Wholesale Business Unit (WBU)	The Wholesale business, serves customers who buy MTN telecom products in bulk with the intention to re-sell these products (mobile or fixed) to their external clients.

4 IFRS 16 - Prior year restatement

The Group adopted IFRS 16 retrospectively from 1 January 2019 and made a number of judgements, estimates and accounting policy choices. As part of the application on adoption, the Group included non-recoverable VAT on lease payments in the measurement of the lease liability and the right of use asset that was initially depreciated over the lease term.

As practice has developed, the Group has amended its policy to exclude non-recoverable VAT from the measurement of the lease liability and right of use asset and account for the non-recoverable VAT as an expense over the lease period when the obligating event that gives rise to the liability to pay VAT is triggered, that is when payment is made to the lessor. The revised policy will ensure comparability of its financial statements in accordance with the wider industry practice.

The Group has applied the accounting policy change retrospectively from the date of adopting IFRS 16.

33.2 Fair value estimation

A number of the Group's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values. The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

Where a financial asset or liability is carried on the statement of financial position at fair value, additional disclosure is required. In particular, the fair values need to be classified in accordance with the fair value hierarchy. This fair value hierarchy distinguishes between different fair value methodologies based on the level of subjectivity applied in the valuation. The fair value hierarchy is split into the following levels:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (e.g. the price quoted on a stock exchange for a listed share).

Level 2: Valuation techniques with inputs other than quoted prices (included within level 1) that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (e.g. a valuation that uses observable interest rates or foreign exchange rates as inputs).

Level 3: Valuation techniques with inputs that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (e.g. a valuation that uses the expected growth rate of an underlying business as input).

The Group's financial instruments measured at fair value are presented below.

The fair values of the majority of the non-current liabilities measured at amortised cost are also not significantly different from their carrying values.

The impact of the outbreak on fair value measurement for treasury bills although immaterial has been assessed and recognized in the financial statements.

33.3 Financial assets and liabilities subject to offsetting

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the statement of financial position where the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts, and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. Interconnect partners payables are offset against its receivables and reported on a net basis in the statement of financial position.

33.4 Credit risk

Credit risk or the risk of financial loss to the Group due to customers or counter parties not meeting their contractual obligations and is managed through the application of credit approvals, limits and monitoring procedures.

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of the financial assets that are exposed to credit risk.

The following instruments give rise to credit risk

Cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash

Cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and current investments. The Group's exposure and the credit ratings of its counter parties are continuously monitored and the aggregate values of investment portfolio is spread amongst approved financial institutions, which are lending institutions to the Group. The Group's Cash investment activity is based on the SLY (Safety, Liquidity and Yield) principle while it also limits its cash holdings in a financial institution to a maximum of 40% of total investment portfolio to manage concentration risk. The Exposure is controlled by a right of setoff and counter party exposure limits derived from the facility amount provided to the Group, the credit rating of the lending institutions as well as the cash collection by each of the lending institutions.

The credit ratings of the counterparty financial institutions where we have bank deposits and restricted cash range from B- to B.

33 Financial Instruments and risk management (continued)33.4 Credit risk*Trade receivables

Customer credit risk is managed by each business unit subject to the Group's established policy, procedures and control relating to customer credit risk management. Credit quality of a customer is assessed based on an extensive credit rating scorecard and individual credit limits are defined in accordance with this assessment.

An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments with similar loss patterns (i.e., by geographical region, product type, customer type).

The Group holds collateral as security for trade receivables relating to trade partners. These are bank guarantees held with bank with credit ratings of B- to B. A total of N4.51 billion was held as collateral for same value of receivables as at 30 September 2020 (Dec 2019: N4.75 billion). Trade partners are to pay within seven days of credit advanced. In the event of default, the bank guarantee is recalled immediately to offset the credit.

COVID-19 impact

In view of COVID-19, historical credit losses have been adjusted for the effects of current conditions and forecasts of future conditions. Total estimated credit losses for the period ended stood at N4.5billion (September 2019 N315.6million)

Current investments

Current investments are all liquid assets that consist of marketable securities. They are primarily selected based on the funding and liquidity plan of the Group and from issuers with the least known credit and default risk. In connection with investment decisions, priority is placed on the issuer's very high creditworthiness and the present yield/interest rates offered. In this assessment, the Group also considers the credit risk assessment of the issuer by the rating agencies such as Fitch, Standards and Poor (S & P). The Federal Government of Nigeria (FGN) has one of the lowest credit risks known in the country and in a possibility of default, it could simply increase the circulation of money in the country or borrow from international sources to pay off its local debt. In line with the Group's risk policy, its investments in treasury bills have no historical rate of default and the investments can be liquidated and sold at the prevalent market rates at that point in time. The international rating for the FGN is B, a speculative grade, for its Short-Term Local Currency Issuer Default Rating (IDR) which is a stable rating but not yet at the investment grade level which is hardly given to African Countries. Current investments are thus not subject to a material credit risk and are allocated to stage 1 of the impairment model.

Expected Credit Losses (ECLs) are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The computed ECL resulted in an immaterial impairment on current investments.

The credit ratings of the counterparty financial institutions where we have current investments range from B- to B.

33.5 Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the cash flow or fair value of an interest bearing financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Financial assets and liabilities that are sensitive to interest rate risk are cash and cash equivalents, short term investments and borrowings. The interest rates applicable to these financial instruments are on a combination of floating and fixed basis in line with those currently available in the market.

The Group's interest rate risk arises from the repricing of the Group's floating rate debt, incremental funding or new borrowings, the refinancing of existing borrowings and the magnitude of the significant cash balances which exist.

The Group manages its debt on an optimal mix of local and foreign borrowings and fixed and floating interest rates.

COVID-19 Impact

Interest rates on borrowings are still trending in the Pre- COVID-19 direction in a downward direction, so there has not been a major impact of the COVID-19 on borrowings.

Profile

At the reporting date the interest rate profile of the Group's financial instruments is as follows:

Interest rate sensitivity

The following sensitivity analysis has been prepared using a sensitivity rate which is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates. All other variables remain constant. The sensitivity analysis includes only financial instruments exposed to interest rate risk which were recognised at the reporting date. No changes were made to the methods and assumptions used in the preparation of the sensitivity analysis compared to the previous reporting period.

The Group has used a sensitivity analysis technique that measures the estimated change to profit or loss of an instantaneous increase or decrease of 1% (100 basis points) in market interest rates, from the rate applicable at 31 December, for each class of financial instrument with all other variables remaining constant.

The Group is mainly exposed to fluctuations in the following market interest rates: LIBOR and NIBOR. Changes in market interest rates affect the interest income or expense of floating rate financial instruments. Changes in market interest rates only affect profit or loss in relation to financial instruments with fixed interest rates if these financial instruments are recognised at their fair value.

A change in the above market interest rates at the reporting date would have increased/(decreased) profit before tax by the amounts shown below.

The analysis has been performed on the basis of the change occurring at the reporting date and assumes that all other variables, in particular foreign currency rates, remains constant. The analysis is performed on the same basis for prior year.

Currency risk

Currency risk is the exposure to exchange rate fluctuations that have an impact on cash flows and financing activities. The Group manages foreign currency risk on major foreign denominated purchase orders through the use of Letters of Credit. The Group has also entered into a currency swap arrangement to enhance dollar liquidity to address critical operational requirements.

Sensitivity analysis

The Group is mainly exposed to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates in respect of the US Dollar, being the significant foreign denominated currency.

The Group has used a sensitivity analysis technique that measures the estimated change to the income statement of an instantaneous 10% strengthening or 5% weakening in the Nigerian Naira against the US Dollar, from the rate applicable at 31 December, for each class of financial instrument with all other variables, in particular interest rates, remaining constant.

A change in the foreign exchange rates to which the Group is exposed at the reporting date would have increased/(decreased) profit before tax by the amounts shown below.

The analysis has been performed on the basis of the change occurring at the start of the reporting period. The analysis is performed on the same basis for the Company.

Transactions in foreign currencies other than US Dollars were not significant.

33.6 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will be unable to meet its obligations as they become due.

The Group's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that sufficient liquidity is available to meet its liabilities when due under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Group's reputation.

The Group ensures it has sufficient cash on demand (currently the Group is maintaining a positive cash position) or access to facilities to meet expected operational expenses, including the servicing of financial obligations; this excludes the potential impact of extreme circumstances that cannot reasonably be predicted, such as natural disasters.

COVID-19 impact

We have considered the potential of liquidity and working capital shortfalls due to changes in liquidity risk on financial instruments as a result of the pandemic. We have not had working capital shortfalls as a result of COVID-19. Beyond the steady operational cashflows, the current investment climate has provided an opportunity to raise funds at moderately low rates as witnessed in the recently raised N100 billion Commercial Paper that was oversubscribed.

33.7 Capital risk management

The Group seeks to optimise its capital structure by ensuring adequate gearing levels taking into consideration working capital, cash flow, existing loan covenants, operational requirements, business plan and broader macro-economic conditions.

It maximizes external borrowings on the back of its strong cash generating capacity. In line with its funding policy, the Group diversifies funding sources across local and international markets and ensures that new facility conditions comply with existing loan covenants.

Management monitors net debt to EBITDA and EBITDA to net interest in line with the financial covenants in the loan agreement while it seeks to limit refinancing risk by controlling the concentrations of maturing obligations in the short end of maturity profile. Equity approximates share capital and reserves. EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, amortisation and goodwill impairment/losses.

Gross debt relates to MTN Nigeria syndicated medium term loan and commercial paper, net debt is the gross debt less cash and cash equivalents and total funding is gross debt plus equity.

35 Going concern assessment

In accordance with the requirements of IAS 1.25, the Board of Directors of MTN Communications Nigeria PLC have performed an assessment of the entity's ability to continue as a going concern when preparing financial statements. The Board has considered whether:

- there is an intention to liquidate MTN Nigeria.
- there is an intention to cease operations.
- MTN has no realistic alternative but to liquidate or cease operations.

Furthermore, we have considered the various events and conditions below that may exist and impact the business individually or collectively may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern such as:

- There are no fixed-term borrowings approaching maturity without realistic prospects of renewal or repayment. We are currently complying with all loan agreements and no loans have been renegotiated.
- There are currently no changes in legislation or government policy expected to adversely affect MTN Communications Nigeria PLC.
- There are no substantial operating losses or significant deterioration in the value of assets used to generate cash flows, however there's been a major impact of forex deterioration on the business due to the increase in the NAFEX rate from N365 to around N387 to $1. There is an ongoing effort to re-denominate some categories of foreign denominated expenditure to local currency to reduce exposure to exchange rate volatility.
- There are no plans to restructure the business of MTN Nigeria, dispose major assets or business.
- An assessment of forecast cash flows and projections has been performed, including potential impact of external/internal variations, uncertainties and sensitivity of expenditure plans. We are satisfied that the business continuity is not hindered in any way or manner.

Based on the factors considered above and taking account of reasonable possible changes in trading performance and the current financial position, the going concern basis has been adopted in preparing the consolidated financial statements. The Directors have a reasonable expectation that the Group and Company have adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.

36 Business continuity on the COVID-19 pandemic

Our risk management methodology requires that we constantly monitor new and emerging risks that can disrupt business operations and impact our ability to meet our commitments to customers and other stakeholders. One such risk is the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, which is currently active in over 200 countries around the world and having infected over 39 million people. This has led to great uncertainty in the world markets and a shutdown of major parts of the world economy.

The pandemic has become a global stress testing of every business's financial, operational and commercial resilience. The lockdown of certain states and institution of curfews in many others has impacted MTN Nigeria's operations across the country.

However, at MTN Nigeria, we have rapidly adapted our operations and way of working to accommodate the current constraints and market conditions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.

We have in place a Crisis Management Team to oversee the planning and execution of all contingency activities to ensure the safety of our staff, customers, and stakeholders as well as continuity of operations. In addition, we have established a strategic overarching initiative to direct our response to the different COVID-19 scenarios we have termed "Black Swan" across the following work streams:

- Staff health, safety and welfare;
- International supply chain;
- Operational continuity;
- Economic impact and capital markets and
- Stakeholder engagement.

A governance structure - including the Crisis Management Team (a cross-section of senior members of staff), Executive Management and the Board - exists to deliberate on and proffer recommendations that proactively address the impact of the pandemic or any possible disruptions to our operations.

MTN Nigeria has a plan which provides a guide to the Board, Executive Management and the Crisis Management Team in our response to the pandemic. This includes the implementation of precautionary measures for staff health and safety, deployment of measures to mitigate potential supply chain disruptions, strategic stakeholder engagement, enhancement of our network and IT systems and stress testing of business plans.

We have deployed telecommuting capabilities to enable remote working and access to the office platforms for all staff. This also includes tools for virtual meetings so that staff members can collaborate and meet with each other and external parties from the comfort and safety of their homes. Today, all meetings including Executive Management and Board meetings are conducted via virtual platforms.

Telecommunications has been categorized as an essential service by the Federal Government of Nigeria, therefore, we have prioritized all required actions to ensure network availability and improved customer experience in Nigeria.

MTN Nigeria, in collaboration with the Nigeria Centre for Disease Control (NCDC) has activated various channels of communication with key stakeholders to share and manage information about the COVID-19 pandemic. Sensitisation information targeted at staff, suppliers, customers, and the general public is disseminated via Emails, SMS, WhatsApp, and multimedia channels. We also have hotlines that our staff can utilise in the event of an emergency.

MTN Nigeria is also actively assessing the impact of the pandemic on the business from the macroeconomic standpoint, stemming from issues such as declining oil prices, foreign currency pressures and global supply chain disruptions. While it is uncertain how long the COVID-19 pandemic would last, we are working tirelessly to ensure the 'lights remain on' safely and responsibly for our staff and all stakeholders in our ecosystem, while responding to the emerging threats and changing priorities as they arise.
